

Print | Close Window

Subject: Re: Hi, do u have any time for a genealogy question or is Boston consuming all your time?
From: Pamela Weisberger <pweisberger@gmail.com>
Date: Sun, Jul 14, 2013 7:30 pm
To: moishe.miller@totalben.com

Moishe:

In answer to your question....yes getting ready for -- or procrastinating from getting ready for -- the Boston conference is taking up most of my time, as is designing the new Geshher Galicia 20th anniversary tee shirt (!) but I always enjoy a diversion.

I thoroughly enjoyed your article. Nicely done! It made me ashamed I have yet to publish my first book. One day!

Although it's not specific to Galicia, I can forward it to Janice Sellers, the editor of The Galitzianer, because it relates to genealogy and thinking outside the box and would be of value to our members. After all...what is the point of doing so much research if you can't share it with others and books are much more tangible than websites.

She might be interested for the next issue. I'm sure Avotaynu might also be interested.

JewishGen also published stories online now, so that's another outlet.

So..those are my thoughts for now.

Let me know..

Pamela

On Sun, Jul 14, 2013 at 4:00 PM, <moishe.miller@totalben.com> wrote:

Hi,

It's been a while since we chatted and I know you are heavily involved in setting up Boston. Would you have time to glance at the attached and let me know if it might be of interest to our community and if so, if there is an appropriate publication I should send it to.

-Moishe

--

Pamela
pweisberger@gmail.com

Copyright © 2003-2015. All rights reserved.